

Proclamation

West County Wastewater Board of Directors

RECOGNIZES INDEPENDENCE DAY, JULY 4, 2021

WHEREAS, on July 4, 1776, the Second Continental Congress unanimously adopted the Declaration of Independence, announcing the colonies' separation from Great Britain. The Constitution provides the legal and governmental framework for the United States, however, the Declaration, with its eloquent assertion "all Men are created equal," is equally beloved by the American people, and

WHEREAS, by the 1870s, the Fourth of July was the most important secular holiday on the calendar. Congress passed a law making Independence Day a federal holiday on June 28, 1870; and

WHEREAS, Independence Day (colloquially the Fourth of July or July 4th) is a federal holiday in the United States commemorating the Declaration of Independence of the United States, on July 4, 1776. The Continental Congress declared that the thirteen American colonies were no longer subject (and subordinate) to the monarch of Britain, King George III, and were now united, free, and independent states; and

WHEREAS, Independence Day is the national day of the United States and is associated with various public and private events celebrating the history, government, and traditions of the United States.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Directors of West County Wastewater hereby proclaim recognition of Independence Day, July 4, 2021, and encourages everyone to celebrate freedom and independency of the United States of America.
